Chamber of Commerce Commit- Support Is Withdrawn From Supreme Lodge of the United States

EUREKA, June 20.—The grand grove of Druids, in session here, voted late, today to withdraw all support from the supreme lodge of the United States, although the grove will continue to support its international lodge.

Grand Secretary Cuglielmoni authorized the following statement:

'Our action is pending the changing of certain national laws which we consider antiquated, unfair and out of date. This does not mean secession from the grand lodge. It merely means that we will give it no support until our terms are met. We will retain allegiance to the international organization. This is the same action as recently was taken by the grand grove of Louisiana."
